Peggy Brown Mayers (Margo): Peggy comes to Starkville from Oklahoma where was active in high school productions. She played Wendy in Peter Pan and served as assistant director for To Kill A Mockingbird. She works in the director's office at the MSU Library. She and her husband Larry consider Starkville home.

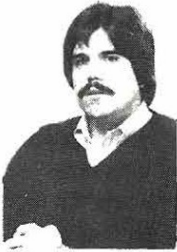

George Sherman (Max): George is a native Mississippian, a graduate of Mississippi State University, who remained to make Starkville his home. He is kept busy by his business, George Sherman's Clothiers, and by his family, wife Rhetha and beautiful daughter Jennifer. This is George's stage debut. The Boardtown Players are planning to see much of him in future productions.

Jim Bowman (Tony): SCT audiences will remember Jim from the last production of You Can't Take It With You in which he played Mr. Henderson. Jim taught speech and drama in his native state of Colorado and is now an associate professor in the MSU Counselor Education department. SCT is very happy that Jim now regards Starkville as his home.

Gerald Moore (Thompson): Gerald is an MSU student majoring in Communication. He is no stranger to the stage, having played in No Sex Please, We're British and SCT's last production You Can't Take It With You.

Blair Jerome (Chief Inspector): Blair is originally from Raleigh, N.C. He has been kept busy at rehearsal using his talents as a counselor to both cast and crews. Blair is counselor for Special Student Services at MSU. His acting has been limited to playing one of the wicked step-sisters in Cinderella when he was in the seventh grade. Welcome to Boardtown Players. We expect to see him often.

Perry Mullen (Captain Lesgate): Starkville has been home for the last fifteen years or so. He is making his stage debut, but says he learned his acting ability while lecturing to large groups at Garan. His patience he learned from his wife, Helen and their half dozen children. His natural ability for being a ham he claims he inherited. His many talents will be a tremendous asset to the Boardtown Players.
