NOTE FROM THE DIRECTOR

Thank you for giving us the opportunity to work with your children. They have worked very hard to make "Bye Bye Birdie" a success. It is our sincere hope that each young person will leave this production feeling good about himself. With a broadened self-image, perhaps all will go beyond their expectations of what they will attempt in the future. If we have helped influence this self-image in a positive way, our goals have been reached.

Susanne Gamble and Jerry Williams
