ON STAGE TONIGHT

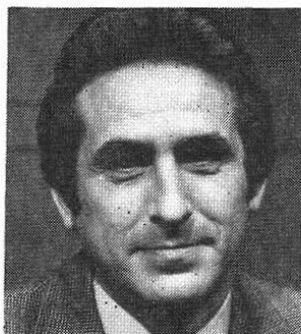

Edwin Ellis (Bob) - Tonight marks Edwin's first theatrical appearance since his junior and senior high plays in West Point, Mississippi. He was the lighting technician for the last six SCT productions. Edwin is head of the Computer Center at MSU. He and his wife, Diane, have three children -- John Thomas, Ann Elizabeth, and Matthew.

Jeri Mangum (Tiffany) - Jeri works as administrative assistant in the Division of Business Services at State. She is married and is the mother of five children. Since moving to Starkville in 1975, Jeri has been active in SCT both on and off stage. She played the role of Gwendolyn in "Little Mary Sunshine," and she appeared as Fairy May in "The Curious Savage." She also was in charge of make-up for "You Can't Take It With You."

Bob Wolverton (Oscar) - Bob is Vice President of Academic Affairs at MSU. During his undergraduate days at Hanover College, Bob performed roles in "Arsenic and Old Lace" and "The Man Who Came To Dinner." His most recent role was Mr. Kirby in SCT's production of "You Can't Take It With You." He is the Vice President for Business of the SCT. A native of Indiana, Bob is married and the father of four children.

Jack Carroll (Dirk) - Jack's hometown is McCalla, Alabama. He and his wife, Charleen, have two children: Bubba, 15, and Tonia, 12. Jack is assistant coordinator of the Energy Extension Center of the Mississippi Cooperative Extension Service at MSU. SCT audiences will remember him as Buster in "Little Mary Sunshine." Jack is a choir member at Aldersgate Methodist Church and a member of Starkville Lion's Club.

Frances Heller (Mary) - Frances was active in high school and college theatre. She is a veteran SCT performer, having played the roles of Myrtle in "You Can't Take It With You" and Ethel in "The Curious Savage." Frances was props and stage trim chairman for SCT's production of "Vanities." She also participated in the SCT acting workshop last summer. Frances, an instructor in English at Wood Junior College, is the mother of an eight year old son, Christopher.

John Graef (Director) - Originally from Chicago, Illinois, John is a professor of mathematics at MSU. He has been very involved with SCT. John directed "You Can't Take It With You," and he played the part of Hannibal in "The Curious Savage." He served as production manager for "Vanities," and he also attended the SCT acting workshop last summer. He is the father of two sons -- John, 8, and Kevin, 6.

NOTE FROM THE DIRECTOR

This show concludes our second season and on behalf of the Starkville Community Theatre, I'd like to thank you, our audience, for your continued support. We hope to see all of you back again next year.

By its very nature, community theatre needs many different people doing many different things and this show is no exception. I would like to thank the cast, crew, and everyone else who helped put the show together.

John Graef
