ON STAGE TONIGHT

Laurie Wolverton (Joanne)

Laurie comes to the role of Joanne with many credits. While she was living in Indianapolis, Indiana, she played The Miller's Wife in "Rumplestiltskin," The Queen of Hearts in "Alice in Wonderland," and Ms. McKay in "The Prime of Miss Jean Brodie." She also appeared in "Winnie the Pooh," "Snow White," and "Concerto in A Major Dispute." Since moving to Starkville, Laurie has performed in several productions of the MSU Blackfriars. She played the role of Eleanor Hunter in "No Sex Please, We're British," and she was Mrs. Allen in "Dark of the Moon." Laurie is an audio/visual assistant in the College of Veterinary Medicine at MSU.

Marilyn Blake (Kathy)

Marilyn, a graduate student in counseling, is originally from Wichita, Kansas. SCT audiences will remember her as Janet in "6 Rms Riv Vu" and as Essie in "You Can't Take It With You." Marilyn also appeared in SCT's production of "Little Mary Sunshine," and she was assistant director and producer for "Dial M for Murder." She is married to Ned Blake, who teaches landscape architecture at MSU. They have two sons, Matthew and Benjamin.

Kathy Poling (Mary)

Kathy recently moved to Starkville from Morristown, New Jersey. She had never had any theatrical experience before becoming involved with SCT. She was a real hit as Lily Belle in "The Curious Savage." Kathy's husband, Jim, is the men's varsity tennis coach at State. Kathy is temporarily "between jobs" and is busy settling into Starkville.

- The Director -

Harriette Mastin

When it comes to theatrical experience, Harriette has run the gamut - - everything from opera, musicals, symphony voice soloist, and drama to costumes, set work, lighting, and props. To name just a few of her numerous roles at State and Southern Mississippi, and Letta in "Death of a Salesman." She also appeared as Tabitha in "Elves and the Shoemaker," Inez in "No Exit," and Madame Flora in "The Medium." She received the best actress award for her role as Kate Keller in the MSU production of "All My Sons." Harriette performed the role of Olga in SCT's production of "You Can't Take It With You." Harriette teaches French in the Foreign Language Department at State, and her husband, Wayne, teaches in the Mathematics Department. They have two daughters, Alexei and Aleah.

Harriette played Angelina in "Trial By Jury," Kathy in "The Student Prince,"

NOTE FROM THE DIRECTOR

It has been my pleasure to work with the three fine actresses appearing in "Vanities." However, we could not have prepared this production without the help of all of those dedicated people (both men and women) who built sets and headed all of the various committees necessary for the staging of this play. My special thanks to my husband, Wayne, without whose expertise in the fields of child care and household management I would not have had the free time to participate in a most enjoyable endeavor!
