ACTORS ON STAGE

JERI MANGUM is a veteran performer, having played roles in six of SCT's productions. She has staged managed two and has worked crew on many others. She and Bob have 'married off' three of their five children in the last four months. Jeri works in the division of Business Services.

FRANCES HELLER has played eight characters in SCT productions and has worked on various crews for several different shows. She will be directing SCT's spring production, "A Thousand Clowns." Frances is the mother of one son, Chris, and is a member of the English faculty at Wood Junior College.

BOB MANGUM is making his first appearance on stage with his portrayal of Papa. He has a wealth of SCT experience as audience and "set striker." Bob is a faculty member of the College of Veterinary Medicine.

LARA IVEY is an SCT newcomer. She is a fourth grade student at Ward Elementary. She also plays violin with the Suzuki program. Lara is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ivey, Jr.

MADLINE GOLDEN BRANTON is another newcomer to the SCT stage, though she participated in many productions during her school years. She is a secretary in the Food and Nutrition division of the Home Economics division of M.C.E.S. Madeline and her husband, Scott, support two cats.

BOB WOLVERTON also made his first SCT appearance in SCT's second show and has performed six additional characters. He served SCT as V.P. for Business for two years, and President for two years; he is now on the Board of Directors. Bob is the Vice President for Academic Affairs at MSU.

CURTIS MARTIN made his SCT debut in "Five Little Peppers" last summer. He is a student at Starkville High School and donates a good deal of his time to Community Channel 10 at the Methodist Media Center.

MINDY HETRICK is playing her third role for SCT; she has worked the entire spectrum of tasks, from assistant director, makeup, props, and set construction. She is a wildlife biologist with the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service at MSU. SCT and Starkville will have a tremendous void soon since Mindy is leaving us. She says she will miss us; we will surely miss her!!

MARSHA WILLIAMS made her SCT stage debut last year in "Wait Until Dark" but has worked crew on several shows. She and Clyde are parents to three children and that keeps Marsha quite busy. Home originally was Baton Rouge, LA where she was active in the Little Theatre.

PATRICIA ALRED has been a most active member of SCT working on many, many sets. She has worked as assistant director, stage manager, and all the other jobs from cleaning the floor to selling cokes. She is currently serving on the play selection committee as well. Pat is an LPN at Oktibbeha County Hospital.

E. O. HAWKINS is playing his third role for SCT. He is a professor of English at MSU. When asked what to include in his biography he replied, "a Tony, an Emmy, and a Nobel Prize"--there you are!

EDITH TEASLEY came to SCT with experience from Memphis Little Theatre and has played two roles for SCT. She is a sales and display coordinator for Sears. She reports she has four beautiful daughters and 71 grandchildren, all beautiful girls, so far.

MARVIN SALIN has never acted in anything before except during junior high school, which he says was in the 'middle ages.' He is an Associate Professor of Biochemistry who is looking for a good authentic game of stickball, a Knish, and a bagel. He has been in Starkville five years and is still looking!

LARRY ALRED has played three roles for SCT, and has worked on set construction for three shows. He is the Director of Respiratory Therapy for the GTRMC.

KEVIN GRAEF has had a lot of SCT experience for a fifth grade student at Sudduth. He has worked on sets and played a choirboy in "The Man Who Came to Dinner."

PAT KELLY has worked on two SCT shows and played a small part in one. She is married and has one son, Jason. Pat is a nursing secretary at Oktibbeha County Hospital.

HOLLY TRAMEL has played one role in an SCT show and worked crew on one. She and her husband Norman are expecting their first child. Holly works at M.S.U.C.E. Duplicating Department.

BOBBY ALRED has been a diligent set construction worker. He has worked on seven sets and has run props on two shows. In addition, he has played small, but important roles in two shows. Bob and Pat have one son, Eric, who is a senior at MSU. Bob is employed at Wal-Mart.

MELANIE POWE is a seventh grader at Armstrong Middle School and has already helped in several SCT productions. She has been very active in several school plays and musicals and is the daughter of Ralph and Sharon Powe.

MARLENA HAGLER is performing in her first SCT role. She is a junior at Starkville High School and the daughter of Larry and Millie Hagler.

JENNIFER J. HEYWARD is making her first appearance on the SCT stage, but certainly not her first appearance. She has a great deal of experience both in high school and college. She has played roles in "Our Town," "Gypsy," and "Marriage of Figaro," to mention only a few. Jennifer is a residence hall coordinator at MSU.

ANDY ERICKSON is making his first SCT appearance. He is a seventh grade student at Armstrong Middle School. Andy is the son of Joanie and Dick Erickson.

DIRECTORS

JOHN GRAEF is a veteran SCT actor and director with many credits; he has directed four shows, performed in four, and assisted with crew and set work in many. He is the father of John and Kevin, and has had the unique opportunity of directing Kevin in this show. John is a professor of Mathematics at MSU.

SHARON POWE has participated in a number of SCT productions: "Bye Bye Birdie," "Five Little Peppers," and others. In her 'other life' she is the mother of Debbie, Ryan, and Melanie, and the wife of Ralph E. Powe.
