About The Cast

Alvin “Ben” Christmas

Ben is excited to finally be on stage for the first time in, let's just say a long time. Mr. Christmas is an Industrial Engineering Major/Theatre Minor at Mississippi State University. Twenty-one years old, extremely handsome (at least to himself), and absolutely excited to be here, Ben Christmas can't wait to be on stage and perform.

Barbara Runnels Coats

Barbara is a newbie to the Starkville Community Theatre. She is a native of Starkville and runs a successful financial advisory practice on Main Street – Modern Woodmen Fraternal Financial. She assumes that by the end of this production, the audience will realize that the fates were good to her when she flipped the acting/finances coin. “But I’ve had the best time!” she says. Barbara is mother to three lovely young gents and, more importantly, is “Bebe” to four wee little Coatses. “And that, my friends, is all that matters.”

Genny Fischer

Genny is so thrilled to have the chance to play Marie. This is Genny's first SCT show but she has been doing theatre for a while. Theatre has always been her passion. She is very involved in the theatre at her school. She was in Legally Blonde, Journey of the Noble Gnarble, and Rodgers and Hammerstein's Cinderella. She is very excited to be involved in this show and share this wonderful and hilarious story with you. She hopes you enjoy this show just as much as she has enjoyed being in it.

Cherri Golden

Cherri began her love affair with the stage while singing and dancing in elementary school recitals in Eupora. She has appeared on this stage in Terror by Gaslight and PostMortem, as well as several musical revues. In Columbus, Cherri has performed numerous shows with Columbus Community Theatre, Theatre MUW, and the Tennessee Williams Tribute Festival including Sweet Bird of Youth, The Night of the Iguana, The Rose Tattoo, Tony and Tina's Wedding, Sylvia and Kingdom of Earth. In 2015 Cherri appeared as “Sister Felicity” in Suddenly, Last Summer in the Provincetown Tennessee Williams Theatre Festival! She is thrilled to be part of this wonderful “incorruptible” cast and crew, and gives a great big smooch to our Director, Brenda Mayo, for her patience, boundless enthusiasm, encouragement and joy.

About The Cast

Noah Knox

Noah is a junior at Starkville High School. This is his second show with SCT, as you may have seen him in Urinetown earlier this season. The youngest of seven, Noah developed his love for theatre at Starkville High and is thankful for SCT as a continued opportunity to share that love.

Sean Mackin

This is Sean's second production at Starkville Community Theatre, following Urinetown the Musical this fall. Sean goes to Starkville High School and participates in Thespians and Choir. He's a complete geek and loves math and science. Sean is ecstatic to be participating in Incorruptible and has had a great time working with the cast and crew. He can't wait to perform!

Luke Manual McFatrigh

Luke is so excited to be back with SCT after appearing as the psychopathic Hot Blades Harry in Urinetown last fall. He is currently a junior at MSU, studying marketing and theatre, and has performed many times with Theatre MSU and in his hometown of Little Rock, AR. Favorite credits include Trial by Jury, The Lion, the Witch, and the Wardrobe, Oklahoma!, The True Adventures of Pinocchio, Seussical TYA, and Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat. "Special thanks to Brenda, Shellie, MJ, and the cast of Incorruptible for an awesome experience and the opportunity to work with awesome people again. Enjoy the show!"

Brad Robertson

Brad is anxiously excited and humbly grateful for his first stage experience with Starkville Community Theatre. He has previous stage experience with Theatre MSU, having been featured in the 2014 production of The Government Inspector. Brad was raised in Flowood, and previously studied journalism at Mississippi State University. His role as "Brother Martin" in Incorruptible marks his first post-collegiate acting venture. Brad is a lover of all things pertaining to the written word and aspires to have his own work published. He owes everything to his wonderful, supportive parents -- to whom he sends all his love!

Vanya and Sonia and Masha and Spike wins

SCT's Vanya and Sonia and Masha and Spike won top honors at the Southeastern Theatre Conference Festival, held last month in Lexington, Kentucky.

The cast and crew will now compete at the national level, for only the second time in theatre history. SCT will compete at the American Association for Community Theatres Festival in Rochester, Minnesota, in June.

The comedy about three siblings won Best Production, Best Actor (Kris Lee), Outstanding Achievement in Ensemble Acting (Beth Accardy, Graeme Buchanan, Madeline Golden, Kat Hester, Kris Lee and Krista Vowell), Outstanding Achievement in Acting (Madeline Golden and Kat Hester), and Outstanding Achievement in Costumes (Mary Ann Jones and Cast).

SCT would like to acknowledge all those who made the SETC competition trip possible. Through donations, contributions and the support of several fund raisers, we were able to raise the money needed to make the trip. Of course now we will have to do that again (because we won!!!), but more on that later. For now we want to celebrate our achievements and thank those of you who made it possible.

Thank you to everyone who purchased a raffle ticket (or many raffle tickets), who attended Jams for Hams at Dave's Darkhorse, who attended A Taste of SCT and Restaurant Tyler, and who attended our preview performance of Vanya and Sonia and Masha and Spike.
